Banking sector yet to meet global standards

The banking sector has yet to meet global standards for factors like changes in the definition of loan defaulters and undue interferences, said noted economist Dr Wahiduddin Mahmud on Sunday. He said communicating with the rest of the world would be expensive unless the country's banking sector is not upgraded as per international standards.

Banking sector fragile, says Kamal in JS

Finance Minister AHM Mustafa Kamal on Sunday said the capital market of the country is not under government control while its banking sector is now in a fragile condition, reports UNB. "The capital market is not under government control, but I won't say it's fully beyond government control," he said while responding to a supplementary question from ruling party MP Ahsanul Huq Tito.

Many listed banks' EPS see moderate rise in 2018

Most of the listed banks, which so far disclosed financial statements, have witnessed moderate rise in earnings per share (EPS) in 2018 compared to previous year. The officials said the banks which kept provision in 2017 were able to witness rise in earnings for the year ended on December 31, 2018. The dividends recommended by many of those banks, however, have almost remained same for the year ended on December 31, 2018 compared to previous year.

Default loans denting confidence: BIDS

The rise in default loans stemming from financial scams and weak supervision by the central bank are eroding the confidence of customers in the banking sector, according to a paper of the Bangladesh Institute of Development Studies. In the recent past, corporate governance in the banking sector improved a lot, but the financial health of many banks has started to deteriorate alarmingly, analysts said yesterday at a Critical Conversation organised by BIDS at the Six Seasons Hotel in the capital. Rising inequity and the declining trend of poverty reduction have raised question about the high GDP growth figure being recorded in recent years, they said. The banking sector should be taken to global standards as the country heads towards the middle-income bracket, said Wahiduddin Mahmud, a noted economist and also a former adviser to a caretaker government.

Seek actions on placement shares, stock dividends

The securities regulator has assured top stockbrokers of taking market supportive measures including making a provision for setting a ceiling on shares issued through IPO (initial public offering) and private placements. The assurance came at a meeting held at the office of the Bangladesh Securities and Exchange Commission (BSEC) on Sunday.

Restructuring capital market vital: Salman F Rahman

Share price movement at the country's capital market within a narrow limit has been acting as a major impediment to the growth of the market as ups and downs at the market are very much natural, said prime minister's private industry and investment affairs adviser Salman F Rahman. Mentioning the country's long-term financing need to turn into a developed country by the year 2041, Salman said that the restructuring and revitalisation of the capital market and beginning of the bond market were very much important.
